ONE DAY TRAINING PROGRAMME IN “BASIC HUMAN RIGHTS” Saturday, 13th January, 2018

“To deny people their human rights is to challenge their very humanity.”

– Nelson Mandela

ABOUT THE TRAINING PROGRAMME :

Human Rights are the product of a long deliberation and freedom struggles all over the world. The global movement for independence by every small or big States marked the realization of a bundle of rights which these states regarded so precious as not to compromise with them in future in any possible way. This realization of the importance of rights gave impetus to the world wide movement for the universalization of these rights across the globe. One of the core objectives of the UN was the establishment of new economic world order. To fulfill its promises, the United Nations started its deliberation to draft an international bill of human rights which will be applicable to all universally without any kind of discrimination being made on the basis of religion, ethnicity, caste, sex, birth etc.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) became the fountain source of inspiration for the global movement of human rights and came to be recognized as the ‘Magna Carta’ of the present Century. The Founding Fathers of Indian constitution deliberately institutionalized human rights and cherry-picked some of the best rights well-suited for the Indian scenario. So many years passed since independence and several potential steps were taken to ensure human rights in the country. However, it can clearly be realized that even after so many years, human rights remains a distant and blurred dream. Especially, there are no effective steps taken to educate masses about their human rights and often innocent persons are harassed, suppressed and oppressed.

Thus, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed To Be University New Law College, Pune takes immense pride to host One Day Training Programme in “Basic Human Rights” which is being organized in association with the prestigious National Human Rights Commission. The programme is focused to sensitize the law students about human rights and inculcate the art of human rights lawyering among the students.
