- Q.2 Read the following passage and answer the questions below: (15)

The brindle puppy wandered on a little further, coming to a crack in the ground which was lined with a few blades of grass and wild flowers. A trickle of water drew her attention and at this she lapped, after half choking herself before realising how to use her tongue, and then she curled upon a patch of grass which had dried in the sun and fell asleep.

It was there that Raju found her later that afternoon. He lived in a block of flats beyond the cottages and had wandered that way out of sheer curiosity and boredom. Too new to the district to have made any friends, time lay heavily on his hands that Sunday afternoon. He was thirteen, too young according to his sixteen-year-old brother to share his pursuits; lonely.

He found the crack in the ground along which the narrow, dirty stream trickled and because there was a little bit of grass and a few flowers, he thought there might be frogs or lizards or something. When he first saw the brindle puppy he thought she was dead, but then he saw the tiny flanks heave and picked her up, his heart jumping with excitement at his find.

The deserted place, her bedraggled condition, made him sure that she belonged to no one. He pushed her inside his anorak and turned for home, his instinct being to get away from the place as soon as possible, just in case someone came for her.

Questions:

- 1) How can you tell that the puppy was very young?
- 2) Write and tell what you know about Raju.
- 3) How did Raju find the puppy?
- 4) Use any two of the following words in meaningful sentences of your own : i) curiosity ii) instinct iii) bedraggled
- 5) Describe how Raju's boring Sunday afternoon turned into the most exciting and a happy one for him.

| iii) Perhaps    | iv) Unless       |
| v) However      | vi) Thereafter   |
| vii) So far     | viii) As long as |
| ix) In spite of | x) Either.. or   |

B) Substitute an appropriate word for the following sentences any FIVE: (10)

- i) Incapable of being heard.
- ii) A person dies without making up a will.
- iii) A person who believes in God.
- iv) A complete failure

Q.4 Write an essay in about 350 words any ONE: (15)

- a) Child Labour
- b) Right to education in a dream.
- c) Right to work

Q.5 Write a précis and suggest a title. (10)

Law and order, we are told, are among the proud achievements of British rule in India. My own instincts are entirely in favor of them. I like discipline in life, and dislike anarchy and disorder and inefficiency. But bitter experience has made me doubt the value of the law and order that states and governments impose on a people. Sometimes the price one pays for them is excessive and the law is but the will of the dominant faction and the order is the reflex of an all-pervading fear. Sometimes, indeed, the so-called law and order might be more justly called the absence of law and order. Any achievement that is based on wide-spread fear can hardly be desirable one, and an 'order' that has for its basis the coercive apparatus of the state, and cannot exist without it, is more like a military occupation than civil rule.
