- Q.2 Read the passage & answer the questions given below it (15)

Due to global warming glacier-related disasters are on the rise. The risks increase during the summer months, when warm temperatures and monsoon rains shrink the enormous sheets of ice. And as the warm, wet weather of the Himalayan summer sets in, scientists warn that the chances of disaster grow every day.

'There is a need to monitor high altitude glaciated regions to understand the natural processes and the magnitude of natural hazards for mitigation measures', Bahadur stated. The United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) is trying to establish a monitoring system that will warn endangered villagers when a glacial outburst or landslide is imminent. The program also would monitor potentially high-risk lakes, which can be drained to reduce the risk of a disaster.

If global warming is the culprit for glacier recession, then the huge masses of ice of the Himalayas will one day melt away altogether. 'Glaciers in the Himalayas are receding faster than in any other part of the world and, if present rate continues, the likelihood of them disappearing by the year 2035 is very high', stated a recent report by the International Commission for Snow and Ice (ICSI). Though the disappearance of the glaciers would bring an end to the deadly floods and landslides that plague the region, another disaster would follow.

Questions:

- i) What is the cause of glaciers related disaster and then do they occur?
- ii) Which organization is trying to warn villagers?
- iii) What is the report of International Commission for snow and ice?
- iv) What will the disappearances of the glaciers bring?

Nevertheless, the past is over and it is future that beckons to you now. That future is not one of ease or resting but of incessant striving so that we may fulfill the pledge we have so millions who suffer. It means the ending of poverty and ignorance and disease and inequality of opportunity.
