Shredding the Shades of Excellence

I am extremely happy to present to you the Bi-annual Newsletter, NLC-LAWSOME, that remains the mirror of our institute reflecting the academic graph, research quotient, students' progression and overall growth of our College. Bharati Vidyapeeth (deemed to be university) New Law College, Pune is one of the premier institutes of law that imparts the quality education and is shredding the shades of excellence on the canvass of legal academics of the country.

The first session of the academic year 2019-20 was full of serious academic adventures and extravagant activities taking the institute to the greater heights to reach the pinnacle of success. From inviting the Judges from supreme Court & High Courts to carrying out social outreach activities, the institute has left no stone unturned.

The mega-academic events primarily focusing to enhance the legal acumen of the students, the various training programmes organized both for the faculty members and the students, industry-interface, quality legal research, social justice initiatives, outstanding placement and internships, alumni connect, students' laurels in various academic and extra-curricular activities were among several prominent highlights of this semester. The present Newsletter seeks to highlight some of these events so as to reflect the quality of teaching and learning process which makes the institute a special place to be.

Taking solace from the best practices around the globe, with a dash of innovations, discoveries & ideas, Bharati Vidyapeeth (Deemed to be University) New Law College, Pune has always not only strived to reach the stars in order to seek the paramount standards of quality legal education and but has also undertaken a pledge to abide by the same.
