

IMPORTANT POINTS FOR Ph.D

Research scholars registered with BVDU Law faculty.

- a) Attendance for pre-Ph.D classes is compulsory.
- b) Admission in Ph.D is confirmed only after passing pre-Ph.D exam.
- c) Synopsis and the title of the thesis shall be approved by the guide.
- d) The minimum duration after passing pre- Ph.D to submit Ph.D thesis is 3 years.
- e) There has to be minimum 3 presentations before the competent authorities and 6 progressive reports (every 6 months) before submitting the final thesis.
- f) The Chapters submitted during presentation shall be duly approved and signed by the guide and shall be plagiarised free.
- g) The presentation certificate shall be obtained from the University.
- h) Minimum two articles shall be published in peer reviewed journal.
- i) The student shall pay annual fees every year without fail.
- j) Eligibility conditions shall be cleared before submission of Ph.D thesis.
- k) Completion certificate shall be obtained by the guide before submission of final thesis.
- l) Harvard blue book must be followed for citations.
- m) It is advised to seek regular guidance from the University appointed guide either in person or through electronic mode.
- n) After completion of viva voce and award of Ph.D the soft copy of the thesis shall be uploaded within 30 days on Shodhganga through University.
- o) For further details contact the Dean of law faculty or read the instructions in Ph.D brochure/amended and updated UGC regulations for Ph.D.

Sd/

Prof.Dr. Mukund Sarda

Dean, Faculty of Law.