

ONE DAY SEMINAR ON- "THE ART OF TALKING"

By Adv. Jayant Bhatt

DATE- 21ST August,2019

A one day seminar by Hon'ble Advocate Jayant Bhatt, Supreme Court of India was adhered at New Law College, Bharati Vidyapeeth Deemed University, Pune on August 21,2019 on the proposition "THE ART OF TALKING - ARBITRATION |NEGOTIATION| MEDIATION" organized by MADHYASTATHA the ADR cell of the new law college. The August gathering included I/C Principal Dr. Bhagyashree Deshpande ma'am of New Law College, the faculty members and the students of the college.

Advocate Jayant Bhatt is an alumnus of Amity Law School, Noida and has completed his double master's degree in the field of law from National University of Singapore and New York University. He has worked with the prestigious firm of Clyde & Co.LLP in Dubai for 2 years.

Our Principal ma'am first initiated the gathering by felicitating sir and stating that alternative dispute resolution has been witnessed in Mahabharata where Lord Krishna acted as a Mediator between the Kaurava`s and Pandava`s. Student`s were enlightened about the significant role played by ADR (Arbitration Dispute Resolution) in the field of law.

Later Sir introduced Arbitration, Negotiation as well as Mediation to be something not so technical but something that is used by every person on a day-to-day basis. This field of law has been practiced since time immemorial in different aspects of life time and again.ADR aids and persuades to bring down the lengthy process of court filing and proceedings. A good Arbitrator tries to aim for win-win approach for both the parties or tries to resolve the dispute which may give relief to the aggrieved party impedingly.

The session was an interactive session where students got an opportunity to ask questions which were duly answered by the speaker. The questions raised involved the working and functioning of this field of law in the country as compared to other countries, the pros and cons of the recent amendments brought in the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 2015 as well as reasons for the failure of Ayodhya mediation etc. These questions were answered by giving reference to various ongoing cases of the country.

The seminar was concluded by giving a vote of thanks by the members of MADHYASTATHA to the Hon'ble Advocate Jayant Bhatt and the faculty members and students who helped to make this seminar a successful and a knowledgeable event and a memento was presented by the I\C Principal Dr Bhagyashree Deshpande. This seminar aimed to introduce students with this field of law and students were enlightened to get acquainted with arbitration, mediation and negotiation as an emerging field of law.
