The following day early morning, we were going to visit the site where the exotic migratory birds, the flamingos could be sighted. It was a beautiful place, about 60 kilometers from Pune in the backwaters of the Ujaani dam. I saw him walking very slowly. It made me very sad to see him sick and weak. He had always been strong from active and enthusiastic. His tall, stately body looked narrow. I tried all the means to cure him. I saw it was a dark, endless road where no light was visible.

We sat in a boat and travelled around 10 kilometer in the backwaters.

That was the last picture he had taken of the majestic flamingos.
