Translate the following paragraph in to Hindi or Marathi.

Speech is a great blessing, but it can also be a great curse, for, while it helps us to make our intentions and desires known to our fellows, it can also, if we do not use it carefully make our attitude completely misunderstood. A slip of the tongue, the use of an unusual or an ambiguous word and so on, may create an enemy where we had hoped to win a friend. Again different classes of people have different vocabularies and the ordinary speech of an educated man may strike an uneducated listener as showing pride; unwillingly we may use a word which bears a different meaning for our listener from what it does to men of our own class. The speech is not a gift to use lightly without thought, but one which demands careful handling; only a fool will express himself alike to all kinds and conditions of men.
