Dean, Principal In charge
New Law College

Dear Students,

Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Pune, is a premier institute imparting quality legal education in India. Recently, New Law College is ranked 3rd amongst Top Private Law Colleges Category by India Today- MDRA Survey of best Law Colleges, 2021. New Law College is the recipient of 'A+' Accreditation (3rd Cycle) by NAAC in 2017. New Law College is also the recipient of 'Gold Star Award' by BCI at its Golden Jubilee Celebrations. NLC is the awardees' of the prestigious 'Best Legal Aid Centre Award-2019' by the Knowledge Steez, New Delhi. Legal Aid Centre is administered by the prominent advocates offering legal services to people in need and has been recognized among the top 10 best Legal Aid Clinics in India. Moot Court Practices are the lifelines of the students at NLC and to encourage the academic pursuits of law students, the MCS provides practical trial experiences and the real court roomfeel to the students.

Our technology is changing the legal profession and law schools in India; NLC has taken into aspect the new technologies and has established AI Cell to look upon the latest awareness from the legal point of view. NLC aims to blend the theoretical and practical learning of law by launching an initiative named as 'GIADRA' – (Global Initiative for Alternate Dispute Resolution Awareness) under its Madhyasthta- the ADR Cell. It aims at to synergizing the knowledge of ADR professionals across the globe and making it easily accessible to the students in the form of blogs and videos. The College has established SARALL (Society for Advanced Research & Analysis of Labour Laws) to enhance the research quality of students in Labour Courts and encourage students to write blogs and to provide dynamic and collaborative learning space both physically and virtually to learn more about labour laws. At NLC students are groomed to conduct advance research in intellectual property rights and cyber law through the AETIP & CL cell (Advance Exploration, Training of Intellectual Property and Cyber Law) thereby giving them value added learning. As well our CCDL (Centre for Community development through law) aims towards creating a forum for learning from each others' experiences benefitting the student's community. We are the third generation of reforms of legal education which demands internationalization of legal education and thus, BVDU NLC has established International Collaborations and Programmes with Universities, Companies/ firms at Hongkong, Denmark, England & Wales, USA, Paris, Ylag, Malaysia, Switzerland and Thailand. The universal trend of Globalization of Legal Research is adopted and inculcated at NLC.

Students are motivated, trained and assisted to write research papers in national and international journals and blogs such as Jurist Blog of University of Pittsburg, School of Law, USA, and Books on Amazon and so on. We are committed to develop long term values of honesty and integrity for our students and make them global lawyers/advocates, attorneys, solicitors, jurists, etc. Lawyers, I assert are social engineers having power and ability to bring positive change in the society. Hardwork is the key to success and hard work accompanied with patience bears the positive fruits of success.

I invite you to embark upon your spirited journey in the picturesque green lush and serene environment of Bharati Vidyapeeth and the Magical surroundings of Pune which is popularly known as the Oxford of the East

Legal Aid Centre / National Service Scheme(NSS)

PAN India Awareness and Outreach in Association with District Legal Service Authority (DLSA)

From 2nd October 2021 – 14th November 2021 the Centre organised PAN India Awareness and Outreach In Association with District Legal Service Authority (DLSA). The Rally commenced with the inauguration of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, organised at Zilla Parishad Assembly Hall, Pune where students and faculty attended the rally. The rally commenced from Central Station to the Zilla Parishad Assembly Hall, Pune Camp, signifying awareness about the importance and spread of legal aid - PAN India. A live telecast of the event from New Delhi was made during the inauguration ceremony, where eminent personalities such as Indian President Ram Nath Kovind, CJI N.V. Ramana and Justice Lalit explained the importance of legal aid and how such issues are essential for legal practices. The message of the event was that everyone in this profession has to work towards the spread of legal awareness and further to provide free legal aid to the people in need. The District Judges present at the Pune venue, too gave impactful inputs emphasizing on the important role of colleges, which boosted the morale of students as well as gave a head start to the month-long campaign.

Lecture Series on Women Empowerment

On 5th October 2021 Women Empowerment Lecture Series was organised at Mahatma Phule Nagar, Dapodi, Pimpri-Chinchwad, Pune. There were 25 participants who participated to spread legal awareness and educate the women of their basic rights, provide strong supportive measures to curb domestic issues and provide information on NALSA, DLSA. The centre distributed pamphlets in this respect. Faculty members and students of B.A.LLB. 3rd Year namely Anaya Mapari and Utkarsh Bhushan Pandey conducted lectures for women working for an NGO namely 'Bahujan Hitay.' The topic of their lectures revolved around 'Basic women's rights and sexual harassment of women in the workplace'. The faculty who delivered the lectures were Dr. Sagar Shelke, Assistant Professor. The session concluded with an interaction with the audience who indulged in brainstorming questions regarding the topic of women's safety, domestic issues and financial issues as well. This session was beneficial for most women as they were unaware of the fact that issues can be resolved out of court as well.

Lecture series on “Who is entitled to Free Legal Aid?”

On 6th October 2021, a lecture series on “Who is entitled to Free Legal Aid?” was organised at Pirangut. There were 20 participants who took part in the spread of legal awareness among women working as domestic help in the village of Pirangut. The faculty and students from B.A. LLB. 3rd Year namely Anaya Mapari and Utkarsh Bhushan Pandey conducted lectures on how legal aid acts as a link between underprivileged class of people, especially the women class. This outlined the legal system of the country to them. The topics of the lectures were: need for legal aid, who is entitled to free legal aid, the procedural aspects of conducting and receiving legal aid and what its benefits and outcomes are?

Dr. Salil Shringarpure, Assistant Professor, further explained the different crimes that take place against womankind and gave a detailed account of the procedure to act against those crimes. Lastly, there was a session regarding the topic of women’s safety, domestic issues, the implementation of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the Indian Penal Code. The speakers were successful in educating the women as well as their children who were also present there. They were enlightened on issues such as provisions as to basic maintenance to them and their ward.

Lecture series on NALSA, DLSA

On 19th October 2021 Lecture series on NALSA, DLSA and services were conducted at Ambedkar Colony, Pimpri Colony. There were 20 Participants. The basic aim was to spread legal awareness about NALSA, DLSA and New Law College Legal Aid Centre through the distribution of pamphlets. Pamphlets were distributed as part of the initiative providing information about the same, to keep the women constantly alert about their rights as women, and in turn, as citizens of India. The women whose husbands do not provide maintenance to them, became fully aware of the fact that there is an entire legal system across India that focuses on providing legal aid to the needy.

Affixing NALSA, DLSA Banner

On 11th November 2021, the centre put up the NALSA, DLSA banner at the Sastri Nagar Police Station, Pune. The aim of the event was to spread awareness about NALSA and DLSA via the official banner. The faculty provided vital information on the aims, objectives and services provided by NALSA and DLSA. The banner became a way to keep citizens and police officials constantly alert about their rights, as well as services and benefits of NALSA and DLSA.

The event was organised under the guidance of Dr. Ujwala Bendale, Dean, Incharge Principal, Dr. Sagar Shelke, Assistant Professor, Faculty Coordinator Legal Aid Centre and Program Officer NSS.
